

McNally Kennedy ACTING

CATHERINE MCNALLY

Our Mandate

With over 60 years combined, diverse experience as actors and acting coaches, we bring a direct, no-nonsense approach to the work. With each individual actor we help bring their unique personal interpretation to the role. Collaboration, discovery, and respect for the actor are at the forefront of every coaching and developmental session

What We Offer

Whether you are preparing for an audition, need to record a self tape or are just looking to develop your skills as an actor we can help. We also offer Dialect Coaching, Pre-production prep, and on-set coaching.

Catherine McNally

Catherine is a professional actor, teacher, on-set coach, producer and director, bringing over 34 years of acting and teaching experience to the work. She is a graduate of Queen's University (First Class Honours/ Drama), London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art, and an International Fellow of Shakespeare's Globe London, England under Academy Award/ Tony/ Olivier winner, Mark Rylance. Catherine is a Dora nominated actor and a recipient of the Tyrone Guthrie Award, Christopher Plummer Fellowship Award, Canada Globe Women in Shakespeare, and was chosen as one of the Top Ten Artists by Now Magazine/ Toronto. She has also recently won the Critic's Circle Award for Best Actress for Mrs. Warren's Profession (title role, presented at the National Arts Centre in Canada).

For Catherine's many other TV and film credits and full resume, see her website at <http://www.mcnallykennedyacting.com>